A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

The upcoming Diocesan Eucharistic Conference will be held at St. Charles this Saturday, January 14, from 9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. It should be a great opportunity to be fed in our faith by our Bishop. Bishop Rhoades will give two conferences and have a question-and-answer session. We will have Mass, a display of Eucharistic Miracles, and a boxed lunch. You can register at diocesefwsb.org/eucharist-events with a cost of $10 to cover the lunch. We are honored that St. Charles was chosen as the site for this conference, and I would love to see a good turnout of St. Charles people.

Because of the Eucharistic Conference, we will not have our regular Saturday morning 8:15 a.m. Mass next weekend. We will maintain our regular Saturday confession schedule, both in the morning and afternoon.

Next weekend, the Christ Child Society will be distributing baby bottles for their annual collection. Fill the bottle with coins (or currency or a check) and return it in the following weeks. This organization does a lot of good for those in need here in Fort Wayne.

St. Charles will host an hour on Sunday evening, Jan. 8, 6:00 p.m.—7:00 p.m., at the Electric Works Unity Prayer Room. Feel free to join us in a unique prayer spot for some quiet time with the Lord. You might want to bring a Bible, a rosary, or some spiritual reading and spend some time in a relaxed environment for prayer.

While our church renovation is basically done, there are still a few details underway. You will notice that three of our four hymn boards are now lit so that we can read the hymn numbers on a dim day. The terrazzo in the main aisle now looks great as we had it ground and polished last week to remove some flaws. We are also replacing the carpet in the Ministry Rooms (the former Bride’s Room and Lector’s Room) in the back of the church. I’m guessing that the white carpet in those rooms dated back to 1975 when the church was built.

Eucharistic Revival

Eucharistic Reflection for January Transformation in Christ.

The Eucharist enables in us a personal and moral transformation that reaches out to every sphere of human life. The love of Christ can permeate all our relationships: with our families, friends, and neighbors. Our relationship with Christ extends to all human beings, whom we are to love with that very same love that forms our communion with the Lord. This love extends particularly and preferentially to the poor and the most vulnerable. We all need to be consistent in bringing the love of Christ not only to our personal lives, but also to every dimension of our public lives. Lay people who exercise some form of public authority have a special responsibility to form their consciences in accord with the Church's faith and the moral law, and to serve the human family by upholding human life and dignity. Read this and each month's full reflection at diocesefwsb.org/eucharist.

Eucharistic Saint for Jan – St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

She was born in New York City in 1774 and belonged to New York's high society. Reared a staunch Episcopalian, she learned the value of prayer, Scripture and a nightly examination of conscience. Elizabeth married a wealthy businessman, but at age 30, she became widowed and penniless, with five small children to support. While in Italy with her dying husband, Elizabeth witnessed the Catholic faith in action. Three basic points led her to become a Catholic: belief in the Real Presence, devotion to the Blessed Mother and conviction that the Catholic Church led back to the apostles and to Christ. To support her children, she opened a school in Baltimore, from which the Sisters of Charity were formed. She died in 1821 and became the first American-born citizen to be canonized. Her feast day is January 4th. Learn more about her Eucharistic devotion at diocesefwsb.org/eucharist.
