A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

We wish everyone a blessed Easter. This is our season of Alleluias, and we have particular reason to celebrate this year. We can all remember the painful Easter last year when public Masses were not allowed. We also remember that for nearly a year we were warned not to sing in church. Now, we are gathering in joy to sing our Alleluias. Even with masks on, let us sing with gusto this year.

We welcome guests and relatives who join us today, and we welcome those parishioners who are slowly returning to Mass after a long dark time. We are also excited about the new Catholics who joined us on Laetare Sunday and those joining this weekend at the Easter Vigil. In a world which seems to have less use for religion, we need to be reminded of the treasure of this faith. It is in our Church that we find God.

We are grateful for the musicians, the church decorators, the parish office staff, and the many parishioners who gave their time and work to provide beautiful liturgies this week. As can be seen in the architectural renderings in our Gathering Space, we are working on ideas and plans to make our church building and our liturgy ever more beautiful. Bringing the tabernacle into the church, replacing worn carpet and upholstery, and making the sanctuary more beautiful, we intend to give glory to God and to lift our hearts to Him in our place of prayer.

We received this week a very generous gift from the estate of Edward and Jeanette Wene, charter members of our parish. Jeanette died in 2015 and Ed died in November. Please remember them in your prayers.

We received a thank you note from the Christ Child Society for the generous return on their baby bottle fundraiser. Our parish donated over $3,600. This is a very generous parish.

Finally, we offer birthday blessings to Fr. James, whose birthday happens to fall on Easter Sunday this year. Fr. James will be leaving this week for vacation time in California, returning on May 7. Fr. James has a brother who is also a priest. His brother serves in a parish in California where he celebrates Mass in their Indian language. Fr. James will be covering the Masses at the parish in California while his brother makes a trip home to India.

Fr. James

"It is a good and holy thought to pray for the dead."
(2 Maccabees 12)

We extend our sympathy and prayers to the families and friends of William White, Cynthia Grotehouse, Arlin Filler, James Renner and Diane Hostetler.

Divine Mercy Sunday

PLENARY INDULGENCE

THROUGH PRIVATE REVELATION TO ST. FAUSTINA, JESUS REVEALED:

“I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My Mercy (1109). The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion will obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment (699).”

- Diary of St. Maria Faustyna Kowalska -

DIVINE MERCY IS FOR YOU

Divine Mercy Sunday is celebrated annually on the first Sunday after Easter. A Plenary Indulgence removes all temporal punishment due to forgiven sin ("Temporal punishment" is the "making up" for sin to which we are obliged after we are forgiven). A Plenary Indulgence can be applied to one's self or to anyone who is deceased. A Plenary Indulgence can be gained once per day.

THREE NORMAL CONDITIONS FOR GAINING ANY PLENARY INDULGENCE

ONE SPECIFIC WORK REQUIRED ON DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Sacramental Confession within 20 days of Divine Mercy Sunday, April 11, 2021

Eucharistic Communion

Prayers for the Pope's Intentions

In any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, take part in the prayers and devotions held in honor of Divine Mercy.

OR

In the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, recite the Our Father and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (e.g. "Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!").
