A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

This weekend is Father's Day. It is a time to thank the fathers who raised all of the men who have been a good influence. It is also a day to pray for the fathers who have gone before us. May we meet them one day in heaven.

We congratulate the children who received their First Holy Communion last weekend and those receiving this weekend. It is a little disappointing that we had to split into two Masses, disappointing that we had to restrict the number of guests, and disappointing that the children had to wear masks. However, with all of that, there is still nothing more beautiful than a First Communion. Jesus gives himself to us in Holy Communion and it is wonderful to see our young children taking part for the first time.

Fr. Thomas Zehr, our new St. Charles priest, arrives this week and officially begins his assignment on Tuesday. We look forward to having him.

I received an e-mail this week from an organization called STS Foundation in Concord, MA. They organize foreign student exchanges and they would like to place a 17-year-old Italian girl in a home in Fort Wayne for the coming school year. They contacted us because she is an active Catholic. I don't know anything about the STS Foundation and I don't know what the pandemic will do to travel options or school schedules in the fall. However, if anyone would like more information, I would be happy to share what I received.

It is good to see our Mass attendance steadily growing. Please, let's keep up our prayers for an end to the pandemic. I long for the day that we don't have to wear masks, don't have to worry about hand sanitizing, can sing out our praises of God in church, and can welcome back our elderly and infirmed parishioners.

SCRIP NEWS

Happy Father's Day! - I know we said it last week but that was just to remind you that it was coming and to see how many people really read and pay attention to the SCRIP news. Today really is Father's Day and if you are still looking for something to show the Fathers in your life how special they are, stop by the SCRIP sales table and check out what we have in gift cards. They make the perfect gift.

Welcome Back! - Last week we saw a significant number of parishioners return for live Mass and we filled a nice number of SCRIP orders as well. It was wonderful to see so many of you. It's important to remember to wear face masks, wash hands and be respectful of social distancing. Science is proving that these steps make a difference. While you might find it annoying, it might mean the difference in saving a life.

SCHEDULE NOTE - Mark your calendars for the following schedule changes. In observance of the 4th of July, there are no SCRIP sales July 3 - July 5. Friday morning sales in the Hession Center will take place on Thursday, July 2, and the office will be open again on Monday, July 6.

Plan Ahead - In these uncertain times, we feel it is important to be prudent with the funds invested in the SCRIP program by carrying a slightly smaller inventory. This simply means that for some items you might have to wait about a week. We order on Mondays and the inventory is typically in by noon the following Thursday. This is not a problem if you simply plan ahead.

SCRIP Credits are Ready! - The SCRIP credit reports for the first half of 2020 are ready and can be picked up at your convenience.

Remember, you can call the SCRIP office anytime. If we don't answer, leave your order on the answering machine. We will fill your order and you can pick it up at the Parish Office. The SCRIP team is back on Friday mornings and on the weekends during our regular times for your convenience. 969-4027.

Using SCRIP a little more than you have in the past can be an easier way to help ease the financial hit that the parish took during this pandemic.

FROM THE ORGAN BENCHGERMAN AND FRENCH ORGAN MUSIC

Since early June is normally Germanfest in Fort Wayne, I recently presented some German organ pieces for our 5:00 p.m., 7:30 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. Masses. In celebration of Trinity Sunday on June 6-7, I played three organ settings of the Trinitarian hymn, "All Glory Be to God on High," by the composers, Johann Walther, Friederich Zachau, and Andreas Vetter. All three composers wrote a wealth of music during the Baroque period in Germany around the same time as Johann Sebastian Bach, one of the greatest organ composers of all time.

On the Feast of Corpus Christi, J. S. Bach's setting of the Eucharistic Hymn, I played "Soul, Adorn Yourself With Gladness." This meditative piece, nearly ten minutes in length, is a part of Bach's "Great Eighteen" chorale preludes composed during the final decade of his life, 1740-1750. The text of the first stanza of the hymn is as follows:

*Soul, adorn yourself with gladness,
Leave the gloomy haunts of sadness,
Come into the daylight's splendor,
There with joy your praises render.
Bless the One whose grace unbounded
Has this wondrous banquet founded;
He, though heavenly, high, and holy,
Deigns to dwell with you most holy.*

Also on the Feast of Corpus Christi, during the receiving of Holy Communion, I played the "Elevation" from the Mass for the Convents by the French composer, Francois Couperin. Couperin also lived during the Baroque period and, among his many keyboard works, composed two "Masses" specifically for the organ, "Mass for the Convents" and "Mass for the Parishes." Each section of these was to be played during specific parts of the Mass, with the "Elevation" to be played during the elevation of The Host and receiving of the Body and Blood of Christ.

I hope your prayers were lifted high as these pieces were played during Mass.

Co-Director of Music/Organist

St. Charles Parish Prayer for Vocations

Loving God, you have made us in your image and likeness, and for this we will praise you forever.

As we pray this Prayer for Vocations, we call to mind the priests and consecrated religious whose lives have been instruments of holiness. Thank you Lord for the gift and inspiration each of them has been, proving that your steadfast love endures forever.

Through the intercession of the Blessed Mother and St. Charles Borromeo, we pray to you Lord Jesus, that more men and women will open their hearts to your loving plan. We pray especially for those whom you are calling to serve the church as Priests, Deacons, Sisters and Brothers. Help them to hear and answer your call to discipleship.

Bless our families Lord, so that they may become instruments of holiness and peace.

Let us give thanks to the Lord for He is good and His steadfast love endures forever.

Amen
