A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

We had perfect weather and a beautiful procession last weekend for Corpus Christi. In years past, we borrowed a procession canopy from the diocesan museum. Last year, another parish requested it before we did and it was unavailable. Cathy Jacob stepped forward and sewed a beautiful new one for our parish.

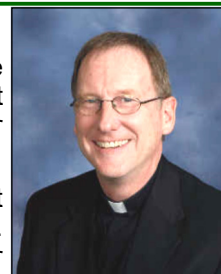

Jacob Eifrid, a young man from our parish, is in formation with the Holy Cross Brothers. He has spent the past year in Colorado and he recently made temporary vows of poverty, chastity and obedience. We are blessed that the Holy Spirit is leading him in a beautiful calling. I believe that he will be closer to home, in South Bend, for the coming year.

The parish office will be closed Thursday and Friday to celebrate the Fourth of July. There will be only one Mass on Thursday, at 9:00 a.m.

We are blessed to have three priests at St. Charles. We try to do our best to help parishes when their priests are away and they need help. Next weekend, Fr. Dennis will be covering Masses in Auburn on Saturday and St. Therese on Sunday.

Those who have been in Catholic Cemetery recently may note a large construction project. A new mausoleum is being built and will be named after St. Charles Borromeo. The cemetery manager contacted me months ago, asking for advice as they commission a stone statue of St. Charles.

Fr. Tom

In
