A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

We congratulate Sr. Anita Holzmer, OSF, who is celebrating this weekend her 50th Anniversary with the Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration. Sr. Anita teaches at St. Francis University. She and her family will join us for a celebration at the 11:00 a.m. Mass this Sunday.

As mentioned in last week's bulletin, we can help those in purgatory with our prayers. The Catholic Manual of Indulgences states that anyone who devoutly visits a cemetery between Nov. 1 and Nov. 8 and prays for the dead can receive a plenary indulgence. On All Soul's Day, Nov. 2, a plenary indulgence is offered by visiting the church and reciting an Our Father and the Creed. In both cases, the usual requirements are needed for an indulgence: excluding of all attachment to sin, sacramental confession and reception of Communion within several days, and prayers for the intention of the pope.

As our nation holds elections this week, we pray for God's wisdom and guidance. Passions are high as we approach this election, and I pray that once it is over, we will be able to heal and work together for the good of our nation.

The Feast Day of St. Charles Borromeo is November 4, this Wednesday. We will have fourth graders dressed like saints at the school Mass on Wednesday and we will expose the Blessed Sacrament for quiet adoration time in the church on Wednesday evening from 7:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. Please join us for some time of quiet prayer. The feast day will also be celebrated at all Masses next weekend.

Our parish St. Vincent de Paul Society will have a truck in the parking lot next weekend to accept donations of non-perishable food for those in need here in Fort Wayne. Please be generous.

As we are watching a spike in corona virus cases, now is not the time to let our guard down. We ask everyone to wear a mask at Mass, covering both mouth and nose. We need to do our best to maintain distance and to sanitize hands. Until the pandemic is over, we recommend receiving Holy Communion on the hand, so that the priest can avoid your breath on his fingers. If it is important to you to receive on the tongue, we ask that you come to the center aisle and receive Communion from the priest. We have been blessed in our parish so far; we had a funeral in April for a corona virus victim who died in a nursing facility in Indianapolis. We have had none since. However, I have been told of two local parishes having funerals this week for victims of the virus. May God lead us through this pandemic.

I was supposed to leave this weekend for a Redeemer Radio pilgrimage to the Holy Land. It was no surprise when that trip was canceled. I am going to take a few days off and be gone next weekend. I haven't figured out yet where I'm going, but I'll use my imagination and pretend I'm in the Holy Land.

HELP IS NEEDED AT THE HOMELESS SHELTER JUST NEIGHBORS

St. Charles is making dinner the week of November 8-13 and we need help preparing food—bringing the food to Maggie Kleber's house or Margaret Digan's house. Then we will transport the food items every day to the facility and the staff member will set up the dinner each night. Due to the pandemic, we are not allowed to enter the facility but meals are still needed for the families that are temporarily living at the shelter. If you can help with a main dish, side dish, or dessert, please email Maggie Kleber at: Maggie.Kleber@msn.com, or call her at 485-4717. Thank you so much for continuing to provide food and prayer for our neighbors just down the street!

"This Week in RCIA" November 3

This week in RCIA, we will take a look at grace and the Sacraments.

We will seek the answers to the questions, what is grace and how is it ordinarily received? We will examine the different types of grace as divided up by St. Thomas Aquinas. God does not bestow His divine life upon us because we have earned it. Rather, we receive the grace of God, which elevates our human nature, simply because God loves us and is constantly calling us to Himself. Grace is the undeserved avenue to God. Please pray for our catechumens and candidates, Casey, Jacob, Graham, Brian, Todd, Julian, Ryan, Natali, Caleb and Jessica as they continue their journey in the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults.

Indiana Catholic Bishops Extend Mass Dispensation

The Indiana bishops will continue to monitor the situation to determine when it might be advisable to modify or lift the dispensation.

For The Holy Souls

Immortal God, Holy Lord, Father and Protector of all You have created, we raise our hearts to You today for those who have passed out of this mortal life. In Your loving mercy, Father of all, be pleased to receive them in Your heavenly company, and forgive the failings and faults they may have done from human frailty.

Your only Son, Christ, our Savior, suffered so cruelly that He might deliver them from the second death. By his merits may they share in the glory of His victory over sin and death.

For all the faithful who have died we pray, but in particular for those dear to us, parents, relatives and friends, nor do we forget all who did good to us while on earth, who helped us by their prayers, sacrifice and example.

We pray also for any who may have done us harm, and stand in special need of Your forgiveness. May the merits and prayers of our Virgin Mother, Mary, and those of all the Angels and Saints, speak for us and assist them now. This we ask in Christ's name.

Amen.

SCRIP NEWS

Remember the Giveaway! If you place an order of $100 or more this weekend, you will be entered in our Halloween drawing for a special Trick or Treat prize!

It's the time of year when we are encouraged to pause and count our blessings. The last 8 months have been more challenging than ever before, for all of us, in many ways. Thanksgiving will hold an especially profound meaning this year and, chances are, many will celebrate it in a more quiet and less grand way than we normally do.

As you make your plans for Thanksgiving this year, maybe you can think of a way to give back to those who are struggling. Maybe you know an "essential worker" or neighbor that you want to thank, or someone who has experienced the untimely loss of a family member. Others struggle with their health, and, of course, many are feeling serious financial difficulty. Make this Thanksgiving holiday one that lives up to its name and you will surely feel grateful, thankful and blessed.

Consider purchasing an extra SCRIP gift card to donate to the St. Vincent DePaul Society or other organization that services the needy.**

Merchant News – We were excited to learn that Great Lakes SCRIP now offers a $25 gift card with a 6% rebate that is good at McAlister's, Moe's, Auntie Ann's, Cinnabon, Schlotsky's, Jamba, and Carvel. Some of you have inquired about a few of these in the past and they are now available!

Schedule changes – Stay alert for schedule changes. Weather delays can affect the SCRIP schedule; we follow any weather delay that St. Charles calls. St. Charles does not have school on November 5 & 6, but we will still have SCRIP sales on Friday, Nov. 6, from 8:00 a.m. – 9:00 a.m.
