A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

I am missing in action this weekend. The long-anticipated Diocesan Synod is taking place in South Bend this weekend. Paige Huston, Edwin Capuyan, and I are delegates from St. Charles. Many of you took part in a parish synod gathering a year ago in preparation for this diocesan event. Please pray for the synod. The Bishop hopes that the Holy Spirit will move through this gathering, leading us to better plans for the mission of the Church in our diocese.

Join us for our All Soul's Day Memorial Mass at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, November 2. We will celebrate Mass by candlelight in a dark church, reading the names of parishioners who have died in the past year and lighting a candle for each. If you have loved ones who have died since last November and they didn't have a St. Charles funeral, call us by noon on Monday and we will add those names to our list.

Wednesday is the Feast Day of St. Charles Borromeo, our parish patron. In addition to our usual morning Masses we will have an all-school Mass at 12:30 p,m, on Wednesday. Bishop Rhoades will join us for Confirmation on Wednesday evening at 6:30 p.m., taking the place of our usual evening Mass. St. Charles is the patron saint of seminaries and seminarians…an extra reason for our parish to offer our daily Vocation Prayer. Please remember in prayer the 94 young people who will be Confirmed on Wednesday.

A plenary indulgence is offered during the first week of November for those who visit a cemetery and offer prayer. The conditions for the indulgence: visit a cemetery, receive Holy Communion that day without attachment to sin, offer prayers for the pope, and make a sacramental confession within 20 days before or after. Several Masses will be offered at Catholic Cemetery during the week of November 1: noon on Monday and Tuesday, 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, and 1:00 p.m. on Friday. On Saturday, a Mass will be offered in Vietnamese at 8:00 a.m. and Spanish at 10:00 a.m.

Our Annual Craft Show will be held in the school next Saturday, Nov. 7, from 8:30 a.m.-2:00 p.m. Proceeds help with our school fine arts programs. Everyone is welcome.

Fr. Tom

Catholic Apologetic Study
1 Peter 3:15

"Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope". We will be studying Beginning Apologetics from a 10 book series by San Juan Catholic Seminars. You may ask, what is apologetics? It is the study on how it give an explanation to support an idea or a truth. In this case, the Catholic Church. This series study covers a wide variety of subjects, the Sacraments, the Bible, Salvation, Mary and other faiths.
There will be a cost of $26 for the book set. Please register for the study by Oct 15, we need to order the books. Email; scbb.study@gmail.com Come and learn how to defend our Catholic faith.

Please pray for the following members of our parish community who will soon marry.

III Elizabeth Perkins—Anthony Ivy

The Anthony Wayne Lion's Club has placed a collection box for used eye glasses and hearing aids in the entrance to the Gathering Space from the Parking Area. The Lions, after collection, clean glasses, determine their prescription and send them and repaired aids to Medical Missions in Central America.

ST. CHARLES INDULGENCE GROUP

The Saint Charles Indulgence Group will host a public Rosary, November 1, the first Sunday evening, of every month after the 5:00 p.m. Mass as an act of gaining a plenary indulgence. You are welcome to join us in the Community Room just off the Gathering Space. You can pray for a loved one who has passed, or you can ask for the indulgence to be applied to yourself. The requirements include being in a state of grace and a sacramental confession 20 days before or after the act. The group is also looking for volunteers to pray for those souls whose names have been recorded in the Saint Charles Book of Remembrance. These names are added every November, so we are currently praying for those who passed in 2024 & 2025.

St. Charles Craft Fair

St. Charles invites you to their Annual Craft Fair on Saturday, November 7, from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at St. Charles School, 4910 Trier Road, Fort Wayne. We have nearly 150 booths full of unique, hand-created items. Our local vendors specialize in creating original art like jewelry, paintings, sewn creations, ornaments, tee shirts, tumblers, towels, and much more! Our traditional Sloppy Dogs will be in the cafeteria to purchase for lunch. We will be having a raffle of some of these beautiful homemade items!

October 17, 2025—October 27, 2026

All Souls's Day commemorates all of the faithful departed, and offers us the opportunity to aid the poor souls in purgatory by our prayers and devotions. In fact, an indulgence for the souls in purgatory is granted to the faithful who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray for the departed.

SIGN UP NOW TO TAKE HOME THE ST. CHARLES VOCATION CROSS
Month of OCTOBER & NOVEMBER

Sign-up book is located in the Gathering Space

We are in need of more people to take home the Vocation Crucifix. Simply pick up the crucifix in the old sacristy before or after Mass and pray the short prayers in the included booklet each day to encourage more vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life. The Vocation Cross would need to be returned to the Sacristy before the following weekend Masses. If you have questions, please ask a priest, or call the parish office.

The Lord has called us to love God and our neighbor. Are you called to love by becoming a Priest, Brother, or Sister?

Who Could You Invite to Volunteer This Year?

The Christ Child Festival needs volunteers—and this year, we're asking for your help reaching someone new. Think for a moment about the people you know. Is there a friend, family member, coworker, church member, neighbor, or small-group member who would be especially gifted for one of the many roles at the Christ Child Festival?

Maybe someone has a warm, welcoming personality. Maybe they love working with children, enjoy decorating, have a heart for hospitality, or would be perfect for helping bring the Nativity story to life. This year's Christ Child Festival will be held Wednesday, November 25, at the Grand Wayne Center in downtown Fort Wayne.

There are many ways to serve, including welcoming guests, helping with children's activities and crafts, assisting with decorating and setup, participating in the living nativity, and much more. We're especially eager to recruit bearded men to play Joseph, Wise Men, and Shepherds in our Living Nativity. We searching for a young woman to play Mary, as well! If you have volunteered before, we would love to have you back. But we would also love for you to bring someone new with you this year.

Please visit ChristChildFest.org/volunteer to explore the volunteer opportunities and sign up. And then consider sharing the link with one person who has never volunteered before.
