A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

We offer prayers and best wishes for a beautiful Christmas for all who join us at St. Charles and for those who are following our bulletin but unable to join us. This is a time to reflect on the great gift of Jesus, the Messiah who has come into the world for us. He is the great gift of Christmas.

We also welcome guests and visitors to the parish this weekend. We are glad to have you with us. For any who live in Fort Wayne and don't have a church, we would love to have you join us as a member of our parish family. Catholics can simply fill out a registration form. Forms are found on a table in the back of the church and also found on our parish website under the click "I'm New." Anyone who is not Catholic and would like to find out more, please give a call to the Parish Office and Casey Ryan will fill you in on what is involved in joining the Catholic Church. You are welcome.

Our church will be under construction this week as workers grind and replace some spots in our terrazzo floors. We will maintain our usual Mass schedule, with all Masses held in the Gathering Space. We will be back in the church next weekend.

We are grateful for the many people who have worked on music, decorating, and preparing for the great liturgies this weekend, as well as those helping with all of the office duties and charitable efforts this time of year. As I write this column, I am anxious to see how the Christmas decoration of the church turns out. In our first Christmas since the renovation, we will have to remove the new painting of St. Charles, rebuild a platform under the nativity scene, and make a lot of decisions about flowers and lights and trees.

As I write this column, we are also awaiting the return of our St. Charles statue in front of the church. After 42 years in the weather, it is out for repair.

Next weekend, like this weekend, has a Holy Day of Obligation which falls on a Sunday. The Feast of Mary, Mother of God, is January 1. We will maintain our normal weekend Mass schedule. Like this weekend, both Mass obligations are covered by attending one Mass. If you come Saturday evening or to any Mass on Sunday, your obligation is covered.

May God bless us all, especially in this holy time of year.

Fr. Tom

BAPTISM CLASS FOR PARENTS

A Baptism class will be held at St. Charles Wednesday, January 25, 2023, 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. in the Parish Office Basement. To register, please call the Parish Office, 482-2186. Next class is Wednesday, March 8, 2023.

Borromeo Bash is accepting donations of gift cards. The SCRIP office has designed a special form that you can use to choose your donation and then they will get the cards to Borromeo Bash. Your gift card donations are used as prizes in games, added to auction items and used to purchase items we may need. If you would like to use the form, they are available at the SCRIP office and where SCRIP is sold.

We are looking for some special and different items for the live and silent auctions. Anyone with a fun talent or service you would like to share a class with or donate a gift certificate as an auction item? Borromeo Bash is a great night of fellowship; it is fun to walk around and look at all the items donated and see the names of parishioners and companies who were generous with our event. If you have something to donate, email borromeobash@gmail.com and we can make arrangements.

This year we are in need of a bar sponsorship for our event. You can email borromeobash@gmail.com if this is something you would be interested in sponsoring.

Dear Friend of St. Charles Borromeo Parish & School,

We are pleased to announce that the 5th annual Borromeo Bash will be held on Saturday, February 4, 2023 at Ceruti's. This past February, as a school and parish community, we gathered together for a delightful evening of food and fellowship, while successfully raising over $82,000 to support new LED lighting throughout the school and at the same time setting aside funds for future projects. Thank you to all, who through your generosity and kindness, have continued to support the needs of our school's students, faculty, staff and all our parishioners!

This year our event goal is $85,000, the proceeds to be used to assist with a multiphase school window replacement project and for school restroom renovations. The two projects will benefit students, staff, and guests of the school adding natural light, increasing fresh airflow, providing a much needed exterior facelift, and adding to the personal convenience of all using our facilities.

Our Borromeo Bash Committee is again seeking individual and corporate sponsorships, and collecting items for both Silent and Live Auctions. As a Borromeo Bash donor, you will not only help to raise money for the school but with 2,100 families in the school and parish, you will gain visibility within our community and receive recognition in multiple ways.

Opportunities for Borromeo Bash sponsorships are:

Royal Flush Sponsor	$5000	Full page ad in program, Individual signage at event, Logo on event website, and reserved table.*

SCRIP NEWS

Merry Christmas from SCRIP! May the peace and love of the Newborn King fill you with joy. Thank you to all our customers and volunteers this past year. We appreciate your support of St. Charles! SCRIP will be closed through Monday, January 2nd. We will open again on Tuesday, January 3rd at 8:30 a.m.

*An Ode to SCRIP

Scrip is a way for St. Charles to raise money.
 Use it for gas or a gift for your honey.
 It only costs what it says on the card.
 It's easy to do and isn't that hard.
 We split the profit in January and June.
 St. Charles gets half with a big thanks to you.
 Use your credit for tuition or debt.
 We're happy to apply it, so please don't fret.
 You can donate to something close to your heart.
 Or, we can write you a check for your part.
 Help us earn money in a painless way.
 Scrip is something to be used every day.
 Thank you for reading this silly rhyme.
 Hope to see you at Scrip sales next time!

Dear Friends,

I will periodically offer in our parish bulletin for your consideration brief reviews of the books I have recently read. It is so important for us to continue to read, not merely for entertainment, but to remain students of life. This is especially needed in an age when so much information is so readily at our fingertips that we can be tempted not to truly learn, or oppositely, we are too inundated by entertainment media to even desire to learn. With that I offer my first review:

Fr. Koehl

*For Altar and Throne:
 The Rising in the Vendée*
 Michael Davies,
 The Remnant Press, 1997.
 Pages: 92

For Altar and Throne is a brief historical account of France between 1793 and 1796, drawing special attention to the violent relationship between the newly founded Republic of France and the region known as the Vendée (von-day). The author, Mr. Michael Davies, himself an avid Catholic, makes special note of the Catholic perspective of this conflict.

Alongside the 'permanent dismissal' of King Louis XIV by "Madame la Guillotine" came a dismissal of everything that smacked of the old royal regime, including the nearly universal practice of the Catholic Faith by the French. France, being the eldest daughter of the Church, had been, to this point, Catholic to its very soul, but the so-called 'Philosophes' had different ideas which they desired to implement. The book portrays the heroic figures of the 'Catholic and Royal Army of the Vendée' in their victory and their ultimate sacrifice, as well as the Martyrdom of the Royalist Catholics of the Vendée region.

For Altar and Throne is clearly not meant to be an in depth study of the French Revolution, rather it focuses on the cultural turnings of the period which shaped the French approach to the Faith at the turn of the 19th Century and highlights the martyrdom of the Vendée people. So, considering the proposed scope, I feel that Mr. Davies successfully achieved his goal. I enjoyed this book and recommend it to those who might wish to start a study of the French Revolution, reproach that topic from a Catholic perspective, or get a glimpse into the result of Enlightenment Philosophy in the Western World.

EUCCHARISTIC SAINT FOR DECEMBER BLESSED NIELS STENSEN WAS

Born to a Lutheran family in 1638, Blessed Niels Stensen was a famous scientist. As an adult, he specialized in medicine, particularly in the new science of anatomy. He discovered new organs and glands in the bodies of both animals and human beings. He is renowned for his work on the human brain, providing the basis for research throughout the following 200 years. His attendance at a Corpus Christi procession in 1666 moved him to consider Catholicism. After a thorough examination of the original Hebrew and Greek texts of the Bible, he wrote, "I became deeply convinced of the truth of what the Catholics [believe about the Holy Eucharist]". He converted to the Catholic faith and was ordained a priest in 1675, and later a bishop. There is only one human response to the self-giving love which shows itself on the cross and lives in the Church as the true bread of humanity," he wrote. "The more we discover and say "yes" to this love, the less do we remain as merely ourselves. The love of Christ urges us on." He was beatified by Pope John Paul II in 1988. His feast day is Dec. 5. Learn more at diocesefwsb.org/eucharist.

EUCCHARISTIC REFLECTION FOR DECEMBER
THANKSGIVING AND WORSHIP

The word "Eucharist" literally means "thanksgiving." To give thanks properly, we should take a full, conscious, and active part in the liturgical celebration. We need to be conscious of the gift we have received, a gift that is none other than the Lord Himself in His act of self-giving. We become conscious of this gift when we actively engage our minds, hearts, and bodies to every part of the liturgy, allowing God through the words, actions, gestures, and even the moments of silence to speak to us. We actively and consciously participate by giving our full attention to the words being spoken in the prayers and the Scriptures, even if we have heard them hundreds of times before. We do so also by listening to the homily and reflecting upon how the Lord may be speaking to us through his ordained minister. We actively give thanks when we join in singing and in the responses; when we kneel, stand, and sit; and when we pay attention to the liturgical seasons where the entire history of what God has done for us, in and through His Son, is revealed to us. Our gratitude is also expressed in our worship of the Blessed Sacrament outside of Mass. St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta reportedly once said: "When you look at the crucifix, you understand how much Jesus loved you then. When you look at the Sacred Host, you understand how much Jesus loves you now. Read this and each month's full reflection at diocesefwsb.org/eucharist.
