

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

I came into this world
for judgment, so that those who do not see might see, and those who do see might become blind.

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

This Sunday is Laetare Sunday, from the Latin word "Rejoice." We are half way through Lent. We will welcome new Catholics into the Church at the 9:00 a.m. Mass this weekend. Christians, who are baptized in other faith traditions, they make a Profession of Faith in the Catholic Church, receive their First Communion and also Confirmation. There is reason this weekend to rejoice.

This Sunday evening at 6:30 p.m. we begin our Lenten series with Dr. Tom McGovern. I have finished his book, "What Christ Suffered," and I recommend it. It is a fascinating walk through the Passion of Christ with deep reflections on our suffering joined to the suffering of Christ. Join us in the church on any or all of his Sunday evening presentations:

- March 15 - Gethsemane through Sunrise Good Friday
- March 22 - Scourging through Nailing to the Cross
- Beam on Calvary
- March 29 - Crucifixion, Death, and Responding to our own Suffering based on Jesus' suffering

I offer a reminder that we have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on the Wednesdays of Lent in the daily Mass chapel from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Come and spend some quiet time with the Lord.

The Knights of Columbus had a very busy fish fry last week, serving over 900 dinners. I heard all good reviews.

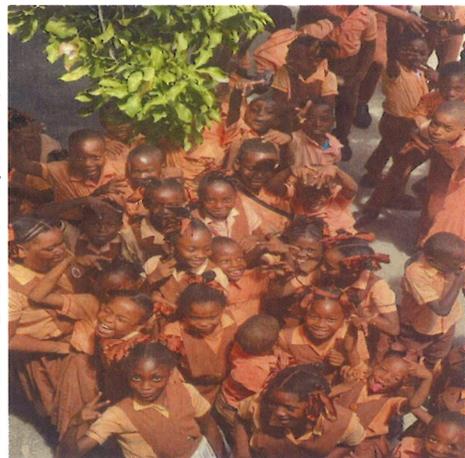

Someone recently sent information on Grandly, a Catholic program for grandparents who especially wish to share the faith with grandchildren. In a series of sessions on the internet, subscribers will hear talks and testimonials, and have a chance to join in group discussions. For more information, check out <https://catholic.grandly.org/>

Fr. Tom

I offer a word on our parish Lenten almsgiving effort.

The St. Luke Institute, run by Passionist Fathers in Haiti, reports: "Our medical and educational institutions remain strong, even if severely challenged. Our 36 schools are offering many levels of education to nearly 12,000 children. With up to 60% of hospitals and medical centers closed in Port-au-Prince due to violence, ours remain open for the sick and wounded in spite of shortages of medicine, fuel, and personnel.

If you would like to contribute to this good cause, write a check to St. Charles and put "Haiti" in the memo line.

Fr. Tom

SIGN UP NOW TO TAKE HOME THE ST. CHARLES VOCATION CROSS
Months of MARCH & APRIL

Sign-up book is located in the Gathering Space.

Each Sunday a family, couple, or individual will come forward during the Parish Vocation Prayer to receive the "Vocation Cross and A Special Book of Vocation Prayers" written for each day of the week. In taking the cross, they commit themselves to pray during the week to encourage more vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life. The Vocation Cross would need to be returned to the Sacristy before the following weekends Masses.

Clear the mud from your eyes and see! The one who heals also calls us to follow. Live your life as a witness to God's healing, saving touch.

CHRISM MASS

The Annual Chrism Mass will be held the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Fort Wayne on Tuesday, March 31, at 7:00 p.m. Bishop Kevin C. Rhoades invites everyone to attend this Mass.

At the Chrism Mass, the Holy Chrism is consecrated and the Oil of Catechumens and Oil of the Sick are blessed. This beautiful Mass manifests the communion of the priests with their Bishop in the same Priesthood and Ministry of Christ.

Mr. Trent Horn, Author, Staff Apologist and Speaker for Catholic Answers, will talk at Mother of the Redeemer Retreat Center in Bloomington, IN on April 25. The title of the retreat is "Why We're Catholic" call 812-82504642, ext. 1 of maryschildren.com
