A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

I offer a reminder of our parish Lenten series on Sunday evening, March 22 and 29. Dr. Tom McGovern will be speaking in the church at 6:30 p.m. about the Passion and the Crucifixion of Christ. He has some very interesting insights into the fate of Christ and also reflections on our suffering, joined to that of Christ. Join us and bring a friend.

Our parish Penance Service will be held this Wednesday, March 25, at 7:00 p.m. We have ten priests coming and the lines shouldn't be long at all. If you haven't yet been to confession during Lent, this is a great opportunity.

Next Sunday is Palm Sunday. We will distribute palms and read the entire Passion at each Mass. If the weather cooperates, we will have a palm procession before the 11:00 a.m. Mass. Palms will be blessed outside, next to the Hession Center windows, and we will process into the church to begin Mass. Holy Week is nearly here.

We are working with architects and making exciting progress on our new building. A big decision looms: what should we call the building? It will be used for funeral luncheons, sacramental prep, youth gatherings, and a variety of parish meetings and social gatherings. The parish staff and Parish Council have been throwing ideas around and we are not yet settled. Let me know if you have an idea.

The Parish Council is a group which meets monthly to talk about the ministries, the social life, and the outreach of our parish. We have a great group which provides valuable feedback and has come up with new initiatives. We will discern four new members for the council at our May meeting. We meet on Wednesday evenings and members have a 3-year term. If you might be interested, let me know at fathertom@scbfw.org.

Mark your calendar for a talk about Mary Magdalene by author Jennifer Ristine, to be held in the Hession Center at 7:00 p.m. on April 8. It should be a good chance to focus on the Easter story.

Fr. Tom

Our parish Lenten almsgiving project will go to the St. Luc Institute, run by the Passionist Fathers in Haiti. They are working in very difficult situations to try and make a difference.

"Life is very difficult and dangerous for children struggling to survive on the streets. They are lured into gangs, and are seen by the public and police to be dangerous for society. They urgently need to be oriented towards a better future, led by example."

If you would like to make a donation, write a check to St. Charles and put "Haiti" in the memo line.

Fr. Tom

SIGN UP NOW TO TAKE HOME THE ST. CHARLES VOCATION CROSS
Months of MARCH & APRIL

Sign-up book is located in the Gathering Space.

Each Sunday a family, couple, or individual will come forward during the Parish Vocation Prayer to receive the "Vocation Cross and A Special Book of Vocation Prayers" written for each day of the week. In taking the cross, they commit themselves to pray during the week to encourage more vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life. The Vocation Cross would need to be returned to the Sacristy before the following weekends Masses.

Untie him, and let him go free. It is a humbling privilege to shout those words in the name of Jesus. You, too, can offer freedom and life to those bound in death. Consider giving life through ministry as a Priest, Sister, or Brother.

BAPTISM CLASS FOR PARENTS

A Baptism class will be held at St. Charles Wednesday, April 29, 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Office Basement. To register, please call the Parish Office, 482-2186. Next class, is Wednesday, June 17.

Below is a schedule of Liturgical and Para-Liturgical celebrations for Holy Week:

March 29 - PALM SUNDAY

There will be a blessing of palms at the beginning of each Mass. For the 11:00 a.m. Mass, (weather permitting) we will gather outside of the Hession Center for the blessing of palms and a solemn procession into the Church.
