A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

We welcome Fr. Koehl to our parish this week, though we won't see him this weekend. He will be joining a group of our high schoolers for a youth conference at Steubenville. There will be opportunity to meet him next weekend.

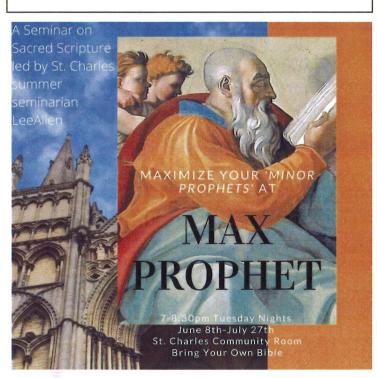

As I reported in last week's bulletin, we are progressing with our renovation project. We now have contractors working on bids, with the plan to close the church and begin construction work immediately after Christmas. While the church is under construction, weekend Masses and school Masses will be held in the gym. We will set out chairs and an altar in the Gathering Space for our smaller weekday Masses.

If you have looked at the picture of our renovation plans, you will see that we are planning to have angels painted in the opening above the altar and there are also two large paintings, one on either side of the sanctuary. The plan is to portray St. Charles Borromeo in the painting on the left, and the Blessed Mother and Child in the painting on the right. We will be able to remove that painting when it is time to set out our Christmas nativity scene. We have a very gifted painter, Gwyneth Thompson-Briggs, who is beginning work on those paintings. If you would like to see samples of her check her website. work. you can gwyneththompsonbriggs.com.

This Wednesday is the memorial of Blessed Solanus Casey, a memorial important to our diocese. I know of four canonized saints who have visited our diocese: Mother Theodore Guerin, Katherine Drexel, Paul VI and Mother Teresa. Blessed Solanus has stronger ties here, having lived for ten years in Huntington. We ask for his prayers, and we look forward to the day that he too will be named a saint.
