

October 28, 2024—October 28, 2025

All Soul's day commemorates all of the faithful departed, and offers us the opportunity to aid the poor souls in purgatory by our prayers and devotions. In fact, an indulgence for the souls in purgatory is granted to the faithful who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray for the departed.

PLENARY INDULGENCE OPPORTUNITIES DURING THE 2025 JUBILEE YEAR

As part of the Jubilee Year of Hope, the faithful are invited to receive special indulgences by participating in particular acts of devotion and charity. By fulfilling the required conditions - including confession, Eucharistic Communion, Prayer for the Intentions of the Pope, and more - you can open the door to God's grace and mercy in a profound way. For the specific requirements for obtaining indulgences, visit diocesefwsb.org/jubilee25.

NATIONAL VOCATION WEEK

O God, Father of all Mercies, Provider of a bountiful Harvest, send Your Graces upon those You have called to gather the fruits of Your labor; preserve and strengthen them in their lifelong service of you. Open the hearts of Your children that they may discern Your Holy Will; inspire in them a love and desire to surrender themselves to serving others in the name of Your son, Jesus Christ. Teach all Your faithful to follow their respective paths in life guided by Your Divine Word and Truth. Through the intercession of the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, all the Angels, and Saints, humbly hear our prayers and grant Your Church's needs, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

On the cover of this weekend's bulletin, you will see a list of parishioners whose funerals have been celebrated this year. On Monday evening, Nov. 3, we will have our Annual Parish Mass of Remembrance at 6:30 p.m. Mass will be celebrated by candlelight in a dark church. We will read the names of each of these parishioners and light a candle for each. If you have a loved one who died in the past year and didn't have a St. Charles funeral, call us by Monday morning. We will add these names to our list and include them in the Mass.

I will be offering a Mass on Monday, Nov. 3, at noon at Catholic Cemetery. If the weather is fine, the Mass will be at the outdoor altar. In case of rain or snow, we'll move into the large mausoleum. Everyone is welcome. A plenary indulgence is offered with a visit to the cemetery during the first week of November and with all of the usual requirements.

On Monday, Nov. 10, we will have a gathering to talk about Catholic funerals and funeral planning. Join us at 7:00 p.m. in the Hession Center. A representative from Divine Mercy Funeral Home will join Karen Hope and me to share information about the many options for Catholic funerals. We will be happy to answer questions and we will encourage anyone who wants to make advance plans. Planning a funeral in advance can be a great act of charity for family members, sparing them a lot of decisions during a time of grief. If funeral expenses are paid in advance, that will also be a relief to a grieving family.

For those who are dealing with divorce or family breakup, you might want to check the website aboundingjoyministry.com. You will find that there is an online Catholic support group available, along with many other resources. If you are suffering through the trauma of a broken marriage, be assured that you are not alone.

Finally, this weekend is a National Vocations Awareness Weekend. As a parish, this has been a focus. We offer our prayer for vocations at every Mass, we send our Vocation Cross with a family every weekend, and we are strong financial backers of our diocesan seminarians. We need to continue are prayers and our encouragement of our young parishioners. We currently have Austin Roy preparing to be a Carthusian priest and Deacons Sam Martinez and Noah Isch will be ordained to the priesthood in our diocese in June. We are in need of more young men to consider priesthood and especially young women to consider religious life. We continue our prayers.

SIGN UP NOW TO TAKE HOME THE ST. CHARLES VOCATION CROSS Months of NOVEMBER & NOVEMBER

Sign-up book is located in the Gathering Space.

Each Sunday a family, couple, or individual will come forward during the Parish Vocation Prayer to receive the "Vocation Cross and A Special Book of Vocation Prayers" written for each day of the week. In taking the cross, they commit themselves to pray during the week to encourage more vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life. The Vocation Cross would need to be returned to the Sacristy before the following weekends Masses.

ST. CHARLES INDULGENCE GROUP

The Saint Charles Indulgence Group will host a public Rosary the first Sunday evening of every month after the 5:00 p.m. Mass as an act of gaining a plenary indulgence. You are welcome to join us in the Community Room just off the Gathering Space. You can pray for a loved one who has passed, or you can ask for the indulgence to be applied to yourself. The requirements include being in a state of grace and a sacramental confession 20 days before or after the act. The group is also looking for volunteers to pray for those souls whose names have been recorded in the Saint Charles Book of Remembrance. These names are added every November, so we are currently praying for those who passed in 2024. JOIN US November 2, after the 5:00 p.m. Sunday Mass and LEARN what indulgences can do for you.

Miss Virginia's Food Pantry Volunteers Needed

Miss Virginia's Food Pantry, located at 1312 S Hanna Street, is looking for VOLUNTEERS to support the Food Pantry operation, primarily on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, 9:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

We distribute meat, bread, fruit, eggs, canned goods, and other items. Help is needed with bagging and distribution of food, to those in need in the Allen County and surrounding areas. Also includes light warehouse work, which includes sorting and restacking products received. All help and assistance are provided in the spirit of giving, set by the example of our founder Miss Virginia Schrantz. It is truly rewarding and meaningful work! If you are available from 9:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., and feel a need to give back what has been given to you, please contact:

Greg Witte, Pantry Director:
Cell: (260) 450-3575
