A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Fr. Bobby and I are covering Masses in Churubusco and Ege this weekend, with Fr. Jerry in Chicago for a Baptism. After the weekend, Fr. Bobby will be away on retreat from Monday through next weekend. We are blessed to have three priests at St. Charles; we can get away as needed and also help in other parishes.

Next weekend, we will have our annual visit from traveling Olivewood salesmen from the Holy Land. Times have been very difficult for Christians in the Holy Land. Any purchases help the Christian community there.

Next weekend, we will celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. Since this feast day was put on the Church calendar 100 years ago, there is an international movement to have Eucharistic Processions or Adoration time on November 23. Here at St. Charles we will offer Adoration, with the Blessed Sacrament exposed in the church, from 2:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m. next Sunday afternoon, Nov. 23.

The Liturgy of the Hours is a prayer offered several times a day in order to sanctify the day and offer prayer for the needs of the world. Priests take a vow to pray this liturgy daily and it is the backbone of monastic life for monks and nuns. Lay people are also very much encouraged to take up this prayer, though it is a bit complicated. Our parishioner, Madeline Nugent, has written a book about the Liturgy of the Hours and will offer a course for those who would like to learn. The introductory session will be just half an hour, at 8:00 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 21, in the Bride's Room, off of the Gathering Space. You might want to come to our Friday evening 7:00 p.m. Holy Hour and then stay for Madeline's gathering.

Mark your calendar for the annual Fort Wayne interfaith Thanksgiving event on Tuesday evening, November 25. I'll be taking part along with leaders from many other faith traditions here in town. Along with Catholics and Protestants, we will have Jewish, Buddhist, Muslim, Baha'i, Miami Tribe, and Unitarian traditions represented. It is a chance to see some of the diversity of Fort Wayne, to reflect and to pray together. The event begins at 7:00 p.m. at Achduth Vesholom, the Jewish Temple on Old Mill Road. For those who would like to carpool, meet in the St. Charles parking lot at 6:30 p.m.

Fr. Tom

FULL TIME EMPLOYMENT

St. Charles Borromeo Parish is looking to hire a full-time maintenance worker. Call Steve Springer for an appointment to discuss, (260)969-4029.

SIGN UP NOW TO TAKE HOME THE ST. CHARLES VOCATION CROSS Months of NOVEMBER & DECEMBER

Sign-up book is located in the Gathering Space.

Each Sunday a family, couple, or individual will come forward during the Parish Vocation Prayer to receive the "Vocation Cross and A Special Book of Vocation Prayers" written for each day of the week. In taking the cross, they commit themselves to pray during the week to encourage more vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life. The Vocation Cross would need to be returned to the Sacristy before the following weekends Masses.

By patient endurance you will win your life. Be patient with yourself, and with God, as you await the sign of your call.

"It is a good and holy thought to pray for the dead."
(2 Maccabees 12)

We extend our sympathy and prayers to the family and friends of Timothy Kearney.

LAND OF PEACE AND BETHLEHAM CHRISTIAN FAMILIES

In these challenging times, we invite you to a special event next weekend. Following all Masses, Samer Awwad from the Bethlehem Christian Families, a not-for-profit organization through Land of Peace, will be with us to shed light on the struggles faced by Christians in the Holy Land. This mission aims to bring hope and support to Christian families and churches in the Middle East, who are enduring continuous violence and a decline in tourism. Your participation can help make a profound difference.

Available for purchase will be religious articles made from Olive Wood, a material native to the Holy Land and Bethlehem. These items, including crucifixes and rosaries, offer a tangible connection to a land that holds deep spiritual significance. We encourage you to join us and support this meaningful cause. For more information, please visit www.landofpeace.org.
