Dear Parents/Guardians and Teens,

We recognize that young people and their families face unique challenges in their faith that were not present in previous generations. There are increased demands of school, work, and extracurricular activities placed upon families. Despite accessibility to new ways of communication, individual experiences of isolation in our society have dramatically increased. We are here to walk with you and bring you hope to face these challenges as a family. Our ministry is here to create a culture where it is easier for a young person to choose to be Catholic.

Parents/guardians play an irreplaceable role in the faith life of their child, but we know that it can be immensely challenging. We are not here to judge. Our ministry is here to support adults in their role of witnessing the faith to young people. We want to be advocates for parents and guardians to offer them resources and support. Our ministry offers opportunities for young people to encounter Jesus in a deeper way through retreats, conferences, discipleship groups, service projects, summer camps, World Youth Day, etc.

We love to dialogue with parents/guardians about ways they might become involved in our ministry. We have had families who host meetings in their homes, offer snacks, chaperone events, and lead or assist with discipleship groups. Our goal is to help equip parents to have the tools and confidence that they need to minister to their young person, while also offering examples of other faithful witnesses in the Church. These other faithful witnesses consist of parish volunteers that live the faith boldly, participate in the life of the Church through daily prayer lives, Sunday Mass, and participate in the sacrament of Confession regularly. We are very grateful for them!

Our summer calendar (stcharlesfortwayne.org/ministry-calendar) is focused on larger-group ministry opportunities, like our weekly Wednesday gatherings at the Youth Center, Steubenville Youth Conference, Catholic Youth Summer Camp, and the Diocesan World Youth Day Conference in August at Headwaters Park (Find information about these events and others on our website: stcharlesfortwayne.org/HS). During the month of August, we will offer training opportunities for our youth ministry volunteer leaders.

After Labor Day in September, we plan to have a color-wars event on the Sunday of Cardinal Fest weekend. Then, we will focus our efforts on discipleship ministry through the fall and spring semesters of the school year. Discipleship groups are where young people engage deeper in Catechesis and knowledge of the Catholic faith, learn about the lives of the Saints, build a prayer life, foster their relationship with the sacraments, and grow in virtuous relationships with their peers. Discipleship groups are led by parish volunteers who take on ownership of the groups, build relationships, and journey with the teens throughout middle and high school. Discipleship groups cover topics including, but not limited to: prayer, the Church, true friendships, Theology of the Body, Catholic Social Doctrine, the Saints, the sacraments, and vocations. The heart of these discipleship groups is a deeper relationship with Jesus and it is witnessed by the trained leaders who mentor the students and foster fellowship in relationship with their peers.

During the school semester, we also offer more occasional large group ministry opportunities that serve as catalysts for conversion and offer firmer foundations for those already in a relationship with Jesus, like the semesterly retreats at St. Felix (November 18-20, 2022 and March 24-26, 2023). We were unable to book the missionaries from Catholic Youth Summer Camp for the fall retreat yet, but we have them booked for the spring retreat and are trying to work something out for the fall. We also may take a group of teens to the National Catholic Youth Conference in Indianapolis (November of 2022). We look forward to participating in other events such as Christmas caroling, the March for Life, and World Youth Day 2023, etc.

We invite your high school teens to join our ministry this year as we offer many opportunities to grow closer to God. We really look forward to getting to know families better and accompanying them as they continue to journey in faith and foster their relationship with Jesus Christ. In this packet, you will find annual emergency medical care forms, electronic communication forms, and photo consent forms that need completed and returned to our youth ministry office. You can send them with your child to the next youth ministry gathering, return them by mail, or email using the contact information below.

If you have any questions regarding our upcoming events or ways for your young person to get involved, please contact us. You are in our prayers!

In Christ,

Stacey Huneck
